Dear Jason,

We love the services and project flow of FirstCom Solutions as they provide fully customizable websites according to the company's industry. Their project team has liaise closely with us and meet us on several occasions to discuss face to face and also advice the best design placement for our website. FirstCom Solutions provide design draft into 2 phases which I personally feel is a very good idea as we are able to visualize the design concept first before confirming on the draft.

We love the work produced and would definitely engage them again for future services.

Sincerely,
M-COM ASIA PTE LTD
