Dear Mr. Jim Giam,

Testimonial

I would like you to know that I appreciate the quality and timeliness of work that your company, FirstCom Solutions Pte Ltd, has done for us. I must say that your staff are professional and act on my requests quick. I am also glad that I have chosen your company and services for my website development as I know that most aspects of the website development are done in-house and are always handled by the same person and same team. This allowed unbroken communication passed which adds to the smooth project.

On top of those, I am also impressed by the intense research your sales consultant has done and presented to me since day one. I guess it was those research and pitch which drew me into trusting you with the website development.

During the project execution phrase, I am glad that you sent Ms. Vivian Lee to coordinate with us. She is careful with the details and hear me out on my concerns and requests well. She is indeed a good team player for your company.

All in all, I am extremely satisfied with the work, the services and the communication. I hope to work with FirstCom Solutions Pte Ltd in the near future. Thank you.

Your Sincerely,

C.K. Wong

Director
