Letter Of Appreciation To Mr Chen Weili From Firstcom Solutions Pte Ltd For His Services to NDP 2019

This letter serves to commend Mr Chen Weili from Firstcom Solutions Pte Ltd for the services rendered to NDP 2019 (Branding, Publicity & Publications Committee).

Mr Chen Weili, being the one of the main contacts between NDP 2019's team and the team of Firstcom Solutions Pte Ltd, provided professional and prompt support through the entire NDP 2019 journey. He was always willing to value-add to the proposals and ready to take on new challenges, seeking to out-perform what Firstcom Solutions Pte Ltd had provided in the past years.

Through our multiple engagements, he has never failed to impress us with his dedication. One example was when he was on overseas leave, he did not hesitate to provide the support and assistance we needed, assisting us whenever his schedule permitted. He also portrayed an impressive level of industrial knowledge and was able to advise us on what was best in our circumstances.

On behalf of NDP 2019 Branding, Publicity and Publications Committee, I truly appreciate and commend Mr Chen Weili's passion in his industry, as well as the pursuit of both excellence and professionalism in his field.
